

AT HOME LEARNING

	STUDENTS	TEACHING STAFF
9:00-9:30		Check in with Teams
Before learning starts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Breakfast - Appropriate location - Appropriate clothing - Prepared for learning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Chromebook charged o Pens and paper ready 	Opening and preparing PC Google Classroom.
10:00 - 10:15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - PC Google Classroom check-in - Respond appropriately to the activity - This will be the roll for the day 	Checking in with PC students for the day. Marking the roll.
10:15 - 12:35 BREAKS: 10:55-11:05 + 11:45-11:55	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Follow the At Home Learning Class Line Rotation (timetable) if you are able to - Go to Google Classroom, Stile, Mathspace or Education Perfect and make progress on tasks and submit them when finished - Respond appropriately to posts or engage in class topic discussions - Check for the next activity posted in your Google Classroom - Teachers are available. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Be patient if they are busy 	Available for student questions, checking submitted work, uploading new activities and tasks, managing class discussions. Teachers are also trying to follow the At Home Learning Class Line Rotation when they are able to, so at times may schedule a Meet with your class.
Afternoon	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Independent study - Check yesterday's teacher feedback - Do something active - Help your family - Play with your pet See you tomorrow for more At Home Learning	12:35-1:30 LUNCH 1:30-4:30 Work in Teams Planning Marking Professional Learning

Teachers may not be online or available to respond outside these times.

Work can be completed at other times of the day if it better suits your family arrangements.

This is not intended to create pressure but to act as a guide for realistic expectations.